Excelsus Landgoed: Your Gateway to International Genetics

Its Christmas at Excelsus!

Its Christmas time and a time for rest and recuperation here at the grass roots level for all the Excelsus team. We usually work on a skeleton staff over the two weeks of Christmas and New Year. The Excelsus name comes from the old and famous hymn Gloria en Excelsus Deo which loosely translated means "All Glory be to God in the Highest"

We would like to extend a warm Christmas cheer to all our friends and clients all over the world. We hope that the New Year holds only the very best. for you and all your families.

In our picture Ian, Tayla and Sarah Kate take part in our church pageant as Mary, Josef and an Angel

Happy Christmas All!!

Christmas

Bazaar at the St Peters United Church

Bazaar at the St Peters United Church with the kids dressed up for fancy dress. They all won prizes with Ian and Prince as Zorro the masked bandit, Tayla as Bell from Beauty and the Beast and Sarah Kate as Red from Hoodwinked.

The Excelsus team and their Horses help out at the Bazaar!

The St Peters church bazaar is now an annual event that all of us enjoy and take part in. We take our stock horses on an 8 km ride to the church grounds in Denys-ville. The church is situated on the Vaal Dam and is beautiful. We rent the horses out to any who would like to ride and generally have a blast. Here Solomon, Sybrand, Solly, Ryno and Elisha take the horses through there paces. The horses become so tame its incredible.

Sybrand Motlaung wins the put-put Golf

Sybrand Motlaung showed us all the finer points of Golf when carding an even round of par over the put-put course at the annual St Peters Bazaar. Margie Currin came joint second with a one over par round. Sybrand's incredible tee shot on the third went over all the obstacles and landed an inch away from a hole in one. Here he stands with a coffee mug and a chocolate as the main trophy.
